

Long Haul

Drake Milligan

I'd follow you to Tulsa
Straight south to Abilene
Sing those highway 40 blues to Memphis, TN
Yeah, I'd drive, fly or I might even crawl
I'm in it for the long haul

Yeah, I'd chug-a-lug-a-lug-a down to Chattanooga
Hitch a little ride just to make it to ya
Highway to heaven singing hallelujah
Just to hear that southern drawl
I might even break the law
I'm in it for the long haul

I think it's going to take a lifetime
To learn your every curve
Romanticize and memorize every little twist and turn
And you won't hear me hem and haw (aw naw)
I'm in it for the long haul

Yeah, I'd chug-a-lug-a-lug-a down to Chattanooga
Hitch a little ride just to make it to ya
Highway to heaven singing hallelujah
Just to hear that southern drawl, y'all
I might even break the law
I'm in it for the long haul

Yeah, I'd chug-a-lug-a-lug-a down to Chattanooga
Hitch a little ride just to make it to ya
On that highway to heaven singing hallelujah
Just to hear that southern drawl, y'all
I might even break the law
I'm in it for the long
That long haul