

She

Drake Milligan

She takes a shine to the stars
The way that she sparkles
Burns up the night
The way that she lights up the dark

She's like a diamond I swear
So down to earth
And perfect down deep
So completely unaware

She walks in a room
And turns every head on a dime
She'd be something to lose
She's nothing like you'll ever find
She's so beautifully, beautiful as can be
And I can't believe she's mine

And I know that little look
She says it all without saying a word
I can read her like a book
And time just seems to stand still
With her in my arms
Nothing could touch
All that ever was or will

And she walks in a room
And turns every head on a dime
She'd be something to lose
She's nothing like you'll ever find
She's so beautifully, beautiful as can be
And I can't believe she's mine

Oh, I wish that she could see what I see
I can't believe she's mine
