

Luckiest Man

Drake White

I dropped my phone now the screen's cracked
I got pulled over goin' too fast
Got two tickets but I ain't mad
'Cause I was drivin' home to you
Caught a shiner in a bar fight
It ain't nothin' but a black eye
Baby, you should see the other guy, he got it way worse
He don't get to wake up to your eyes like I do

Your love is like the lottery
I'm always getting paid
'Cause when you put it on me
I ain't got no worries
It could be the worse day

But if I got you riding in my shotgun seat
If I got you sleepin' in my Tennessee tee
If I got them lips on mine, got your hand in my hand
I'd still be the luckiest man
In the whole damn world
As long as I got you, girl
I could lose everything
But if you ask me
I'd still be the luckiest man

(Luckiest man, luckiest man, luckiest man, yeah)
I'd still be alright

I broke a mirror and I spilled the salt
Fender bender and it's all my fault
I walked under a ladder
Still it don't matter
'Cause if I got you I got it all

If I got you riding in my shotgun seat
If I got you sleepin' in my Tennessee tee
If I got them lips on mine, got your hand in my hand
I'd still be the luckiest man
In the whole damn world
As long as I got you, girl
I could lose everything
But if you ask me
I'd still be the luckiest man

(Luckiest man, luckiest man, luckiest man)
I'd still be the luckiest man

If I got you riding in my shotgun seat
If I got you sleepin' in my Tennessee tee
If I got your lips on mine, got your hand in my hand
I'd still be the luckiest man
In the whole damn world
As long as I got you, girl
I could lose everything
But if you ask me
I'd still be the luckiest man

(Luckiest man, luckiest man, luckiest man)
I'd still be, I'd still be the luckiest man
In the whole damn world
As long as I got you, girl
Everything
But if you ask me
I'd still be, I'd still be your

Your love is like the lottery
When you're sleepin' in Tennessee
Oh, no
I'd still be the luckiest man

Your love is like the lottery
I'm always getting paid
Your love is like the lottery
I'm always getting paid
