

Stompin' Ground

Drake White

Is there a main street you miss
Is there a girl that you left
Is there a backyard trampoline
Where you got your first kiss
Is there an old dive bar
Where you sang your first song
Is there a church on a hill
Friday night football field

Is it big city concrete
Or a one horse town
Does it free your soul
Or does it hold you down
Is it Alabama quiet
Or California loud
You better pick your feet up
And put 'em down proud
Cause that's your stompin' ground
That's your stompin' ground

Is there a smell in the wind
That takes you back again
Is there a Texaco Stop N Go
You got your ass whipped in
Is there an old red barn
Where you learned to smoke
Is there a pretty little reason for leaving

Is it big city concrete
Or a one horse town
Does it free your soul
Or does it hold you down
Is it Alabama quiet
Or California loud
You better pick your feet up
And put em down proud
Cause that's your stompin' ground
That's your stompin' ground

Way up with them northern lights
Down south where them pines grow
East or West of Crazyville
Wherever your heart feels home

Is it big city concrete
Or a one horse town
Does it free your soul
Or does it hold you down
Is it Alabama quiet
Or California loud
You better pick your feet up
Oh and put em down proud
Cause that's your stomping ground
Yeah that's your stompin' ground
