Do It All

Drake

Somebody remind me where I am that's right I'm at home, I'm right where I belong girl you say you feeling faded yeah me too the smoke is getting blown and the drinks is super strong I know they ain't getting money like we do so it's on.
I was looking for the one now I'm feeling dumb for thinking that it was you
I was wrong now I'm back up in this bitch going harder than I did watch me d o it

And I'mma do it all feeling like the old me you don't even know me I'mma do it all
I'mma do it all
Probably why I'm back up in this bitch going harder than I did watch me do it tonight I'm into breaking up somebody's home

I'm drunk as ever
I'm not alone, I'm with my people I know you love it i don't just do it
I over does it I be getting money so long its just paper to me take all my memories with you and just erase it for me you can never reminisce when you forget it all careful what you wish for, you might just get it all Now my life is angel hair and pignot grigio baby forget about it I'm headed wherever this muthfucking jet is routed you can't have my heart the doctor told me I'd be dead without it my judgements never clouded that's why I'm steady yelling weatherman weatherman I'm about whatever man I'm tryna fuck with tinkerbell in never neverland but I'm polite about it baby after you
I've had a glass or too so somebody remind me where I am

Tryna get the green like I'm waiting at a long light broke just doesn't suit me girl and every night is prom night where'd I just put my bow tie millionnaire multi Rest in peace to BIG and praises to the most high getting stupid paid off of smart decisions I'm the man now, I guess that parts a given so someone please tell me the problem with my competition
I ask whats up and they just say the cost of living I love from it though, I've been down and I got up bring a hundred thousand to the club and light your spot up and me falling and landing in love shouldn't happen because everythings easier to get into than get out off but someone show me to the owner of this city because the owners always seem to be the only people with me

I’m still the mafia, still run the commitee NY forever nigga, Diddy,
