No, no, no, no, no, no, no

Why You have to take her, Lord?

Why You have to take her?

She was grandma's favorite

And I'm her only baby

And I just can't take it

I tried to smile, but after a while, I just can't shake it

I feel stripped, naked

And I wanna blame it

On all those leeches latchin' on like the ones she laid with

And I hate that I'm sayin' this

Why it gotta be like this?

I ain't never lose someone that I need like this

What do you mean I can't see you?

I can't believe I can't see you

No more, no more, no more, no

Girl, I can't believe I can't see you

Tell me why I can't see you

No more, no more, no more

It hurts so bad, man

Hurts so bad, man

"People show they true colors at a time like this"

That's what the driver said in the hearse we was ridin' in

Y'all stood up there and tried to preach it, it makes me sick

She gave her all to all of us and this the thanks she get?

No, no

For real

And I can't explain it

How can I be so sad but filled with hatred?

I love my aunty, she told me to have some patience

But I'm just waitin' on the one that I can't get back

Damn

I can't believe I can't see you

What do you mean I can't see you?

No more, no more

Ain't no way I can't see you, oh

How dare they say I can't see you (No)

They ain't gon' see nothing

All the ones that was messin' with any of the things that you had
