

Conflicted

DRAM

I can't stay away from you
I can't stay away from you
I can't stay away
Tried to
Way too many nights, way too many fights
I tried to
Loved you for all the wrong ways
And I can't
Love you no more
(Wait)
Wait on you
I could never wait on you
I can't stay away from you even though
I try to
Live in the moment but knowing that I can't stay
And even though I give you my heart
It still breaks
And even though you say you love me, it don't mean shit
You told me you would never lie to me, but you did
And you did

But I can't stay away from you
I can't stay away from you
I can't stay away from you
I can't stay away from you

You can bet your bottom dollar
And keep away from using problems for me
And if I had another condom
(Um)
I'd run it back just like you wanna believe
Me when I say that whenever I look in your eyes
I get mesmerized
Intrigued, and hypnotized
All at the same time
How do you do?
What you do?
Call me toxic if you wanna
Know you wanna fuck me too besides
It's cliché to say
Now's not the time to not
Do exactly what we wanna do so tell me how
Can we go our separate ways when we feel like we do

But I can't stay away from you
(From you)
I can't stay away from you
I can't stay away from you

I can't stay away from you

I can't stay away from you
