Exposure

DRAM

Yeah-ay

Let me love you inside-out and outside-in
Let me touch your soul before I touch your skin

Expose yourself to me
You have my consent
I wanted to see

What lies underneath
'Cause beauty to me, is more than skin deep

A moment of my dreams
Right here in real life
Right there when I sleep

Every memory
That you and me share means everything

And I (I just want to be your man)
And I (I already think I am)
And I (Want to be the best of friends)
And I (But first you gotta let me in)

Let me love you inside-out and outside-in
Let me touch your soul just like I touch your skin

Let me love you inside-out and outside-in
Let me love you over and over again

And I expose myself to you
You took off your clothes, before I did too
You showed me something new
You're vulnerable side, you gave me the proof

There's no such thing as cool
When passionate love sets fire to the room
All I want to do
Is make you love me too

I (I just want to be your man)
And I (I already think I am)
And I (Want to be the best of friends)
And I (But first you gotta let me in)

Let me love you inside-out and outside-in (Come on)
Let me touch your soul just like I touch your skin
(Touch your, yeah)

Let me love you inside-out and outside-in
(Let me love you girl)
Let me love you over and over again

Hopefully I really am prepared
To split my life in half so we can share

The good times (Good times)

And this time (This time)
Is better than the last time (Last time)
I'll do more than just promise, girl I swear

Let me love you inside-out and outside-in
Let me touch your soul just like I touch your skin
(I touch your skin)

Let me love you inside-out and outside-in (Oh-oh)
Let me love you over and over again, and

I (I just want to be your man)
And I (I already think I am)
And I (Want to be the best of friends)
