Just One

DRAM

Question do you look to me for your protection?
Am I your weapon of destruction?
The answer do I need it? No I don't
But still I have a question
Why you tell me I'm so inspirational?
Then you find it so easy to tell me no
I guess that's how it goes

So give me a reason to send flowers directly to where you work
Make you feel like this what you deserve cus I put on
So give me a reason to put kisses directly between your lips
Put this good thing all in between your hips put you on

You went out for drinks tonight so you call me hoping that I co me over 'til you sober
I like it when you drink at night cus we make love
I kiss you til the morning light
Six something in the a.m. while you layin onside of me
But then you need some time that's enough I think I'm done "no
I'm not"

So give me a reason to send flowers directly to where you work
Make you feel like this what you deserve cus I put on
So give me a reason to put kisses directly between your lips
Put this good thing all in between your hips put you on

Your love [mumbling]
Your touch [mumbling]
Your love [mumbling]
Your touch [mumbling]

So give me a reason to send flowers directly to where you work
Make you feel like this what you deserve cus I put on
So give me a reason to put kisses directly between your lips
Put this good thing all in between your hips put you on
