

People just hurt people 'cause they were hurt by someone else
People just hurt people 'cause they were hurt by someone else
People just hurt people 'cause they were hurt by someone else
People just hurt people 'cause they were hurt by someone else

Goin' through hardships
Similar setbacks, that's from years ago
Way too much free time, in the meantime, durin' me time, might explode
I had to rewind for a decline, chuck the peace sign, now I'm piecin'
You can call it what you want, and I'm just callin' it how I see it
Takin' it easy, ain't an option, I got options I can choose one
I can move one via Uber, while I call Lyft to pick you up
Guess I can really maneuver, but you move more sneaky
You can call it what you want, but I'm callin' it how I see it

She was too good to have for myself
Just found out, I was sharin' her with somebody else
Oh-oh

People just hurt people 'cause they were hurt by someone else (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
People just hurt people 'cause they were hurt by someone else (Ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh, ooh-ooh)
People just hurt people 'cause they were hurt by someone else (Yeah)
People just hurt people 'cause they were hurt by someone else

Dealin' with heartbreaks like dealin' a bad hand to your own self
I was naive to ever believe that you would believe in anyone else
Let alone me (Ah, ah)
So misleadin'
You can call it what you want, but I'm callin' it how I see it
And I've seen enough to know I'm done
Bein' your personal punchin' bag
Constantly beatin' down my back, and it fucks me up
But you keep callin' my phone like you need me
I be callin' you out your name, if I'm callin' it how I see you

She was too good to have for myself (Way too good to have for myself)
Just found out, I was sharin' her with somebody else
Oh-oh

People just hurt people (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
People just hurt people (Yeah, yeah)
People just hurt people (Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, yeah, yeah)
People just hurt people 'cause they were hurt by someone else

La, la, la
La, la, la
La, la
