An made up all these stories in my head
An now I believe them
Now I believe them
I assumed the worst
An make up all these stories in my head
Assume the worst
An make up all these stories in my head
Assume the worst
An then I believe them
An then I believe

So do you crave me Like I crave you
I need you to save me You know if you needed
If you were bleeding But oooo
You're so strong You're much braver than I am
I need you to save me
Need you to save me before I
