

Lifetime

DRAMA

If ever there was a time
If ever there was a day
If ever you needed space
I'd give you a life

I'd give you a lifetime to figure this out
(Figure this, figure this out)
I'd give you the light in your darkest hour
(Darkest, darkest hour)
I'd give you the light
To figure this out
I'd give you a lifetime
Give you a lifetime
Give you a lifetime
To figure this out
Give you the light in your darkest hour
Give you the light
To figure this out
I'd give you a lifetime
Give you a lifetime

'Cause ooh, darling
You've got what I want
Sugar, I've been dreamin' of Someone
Like you
And ooh, darling
You've got what I need
Honey, satisfaction guaranteed
Baby, you own me

I'd give you a lifetime to figure this out
I'd give you the light in your darkest hour
(Darkest, darkest hour)
I'd give you the light
To figure this out
I'd give you a lifetime
Give you a lifetime
Give you a lifetime
To figure this out
Give you the light in your darkest hour
Give you the light
To figure this out
I'd give you a lifetime
Give you a lifetime

'Cause ooh, darling
You've got what I want
Sugar, I've been dreamin' of Someone
Like you
