

Lost & Found

DRAMA

Ooh, you're gonna bleed me dry
You take my love and leave
Don't leave nothing behind
No, that ain't right

Ooh, you're gonna bleed me dry
You take my love and leave
Don't leave nothing behind
No, that ain't right

And we could be so good together
We could have all this and more
We found our way back from never
And we could do it again if we wanted
And we could do it again if we wanted

All you wanna talk about is leaving
Darling, if you leave me now
Don't change your mind and then just turn around
'Cause I won't be there
Won't be no lost and found
All you wanna talk about is leaving
Darling, if you leave me now
Don't change your mind and then just turn around
'Cause I won't be there
Won't be no lost and found
Won't be no lost and found

No, I won't play the fool
Letting go is easy if it means that much to you
Won't beg you to stay
But what would it take for you to listen?

Say it out loud
Scream your name
But you won't kiss me
So I said, "What would it take?
What would it take?"

All you wanna talk about is leaving
Darling, if you leave me now
Don't change your mind and then just turn around
'Cause I won't be there
Won't be no lost and found
Won't be no lost and found

All you wanna talk about is leaving
Darling, if you leave me now
Don't change your mind and then just turn around
'Cause I won't be there
