

Tiny Candles

Dramarama

Oh, I see tiny castles in the sky
And it's so nice, so nice
Oh, I see tiny candles in your eyes
And it's so nice, so nice

Jumping bail on passing trains
Riding along, along on the safe way
Sneaking food off sidewalk slaves
We've got it all wrong

Hoping for a lot of rain
40 days should do quite nicely
I don't think I've got it right
I've got it all wrong

Oh, I see tiny castles in the sky
And its so nice, so nice
Oh, I see tiny candles in your eyes
And it's so nice, so nice

Creeping along the auto train
500 miles seems a lifetime
Sleeping and moving all the same
We've got it all wrong

Calling your girlfriend on the plane
Please don't make noise while I'm reciting
I don't think I've got it right
I've got it all wrong

Oh, I see tiny castles in the sky
And it's so nice, so nice
Oh, I see tiny candles in your eyes
And it's so nice, so nice
