

Another Juliet

Drapht

Yo, yo, yo
That's annoying

As I listen to Bob Dylan's vision of Johanna
Got shivers as he sung her name
No Orlando, no Miranda
No piggy in the middle like James
Randy Newman sung Louisiana
They're gonna wash us away
Yo, I can suddenly feel his pain
Felt like he was speaking to me

Cause I'm stuck in the middle of a little bit of a problem
Got a girl playing a piece of my heart like she was Janis Joplin
I was Austin Powers: Man of Mystery
Was Gotham's Batman, hidden a little bit of me
So she could be safe, cause her friends misunderstood
Like I was the joker, just no good
'Cause I'm a ghost, no Rogue, no Patrick Swayze
'Cause I rap, now I'm bad like dad like Damien
Alienated and painted me as evil
Cause I'm eating my quinoa listening to The Beatles
Refused to go to war for love
No clandestine lust, no Paolo and Francesca
It ain't messed up, you restless
It's messed up your best friends judge you but then you let them
I haven't met them and they hate me
Is that me or the manic depression medicine you taking

She said we should
Only be together for six months
Cause then she had to go away and grow up
You see her daddy didn't understand
She said we should
Maybe keep this love to us
Cause her friends rolling up those cigarettes
They'll never understand

But I ain't looking for another fuckin' Juliet
And this is unapologetically who I am
I am, I am
I ain't looking for another fuckin' Juliet
Juliet

I was minding my own business, busy running my business
Way before that I even knew you existed
From a distance sailed in like Columbus's ship
Changing my world, put a new spin on my existence
Should'a listened to my inner-self
'Stead of the temptations singing me my girl
My Belle, Michelle, my Cherie Amour
I can't help myself she got me good but I

Ain't looking for a Juliet
I don't need another Juliet
This is unapologetically who I am
And I ain't looking for a Juliet

Juliet

As I listen to Bob Dylan's vision of Johanna
Got shivers as he sung her name
No Orlando, no Miranda
No piggy in the middle like James
Randy Newman sung Louisiana
They're gonna wash us away
Yo, I can suddenly feel his pain
Felt like he was speaking to me, me, me

She said we should
Only be together for six months
Cause then she had to go away and grow up
You see her daddy didn't understand
She said we should
Maybe keep this love to us
Cause her friends rolling up those cigarettes
They'll never understand

Girl you ain't no Juliet
And this is unapologetically who I am
I am, I am
I ain't looking for another fuckin' Juliet
Juliet

Ain't looking for a Juliet
I don't need another Juliet
This is unapologetically who I am
I ain't looking for a Juliet
