

Don't Take No

Drapht

Yes is the only thing I want to ever hear
and not ever no and nothing that's ever near it.
Yes is the only thing I want to ever hear
and not ever no and nothing that's ever near it.

I'm never taking no for an answer, man with the power change your life. I'm moving more eyes than a flower and now that I'm louder than ever, gotta stop Bush and John Howard from showering together.
Either now or this never-ending story gets worse.
Check words, take down more squares than cheque-shirts.
Sex first. Never doing business your way.
Screwing you over before I'm giving you foreplay.
It's gourmet flavour, neighbour's know my aroma.
Kills and grows on you quicker than a melanoma and it's known to be easy, easy as your girlfriend.
You must've been bad, I seen her sleazing on selwyn (selwyn?)
Nah, I'm just kidding, she ain't that loose, but she's pretty stank, ranker than your matching track-suits. (ohh) C'mon now and don't try and hide it, like a copper 'gainst my right, it's impossible to fight it.

I'm never taking no "no" from no one.
It never sounds as good as "yes" (yes)
Never hold it back, raise the roof,
cos you gotta get it off your che-e-e-e-est.
I'm never taking no "no" from no one.

Never hold it back, raise the roof,
cos you gotta get it off your che-e-e-e-est.

I set the noise, forget going to get ya boys.
I'll never settle for second, like I was injecting 'roids.
Enjoy the pain like sex with toys in poison rain.
Running through your head to destroy your brain and won't stop, till I've got the dopest funk and won't stop till my shit's hotter than Sophie Monk.
I won't leave till I see what I need through my eyes.
Only leave if you sheep stop believing my lies said it's easy to believe the words you hear.
You start to get a bigger head than the German beer.
Vermin fear cos D-R's tongue's a mousetrap snapping your neck as you hear the bass like bounce back. (ohh yeah)
Will not stop running rest to deliver. (oh yeah)
Only thing dead here is my liver cos I live it up, never give a fuck about tomorrow.
Cos I'll never understand what the next man will follow.

Yes is the only thing I want to ever hear
and not ever no and nothing that's ever near it.
Yes is the only thing I want to ever hear
and not ever no and nothing that's ever near it.

Never know how far a person will go to be right.
Pushier than a preacher trying to show me the light.
Cos I fight for a cause, at war with the world.
Take it all like getting divorced to four different girls. (bitch)

But D-R's never leaving (Drapht)
Number one start of every season, get even twice like number four cos I brawl
when I'm on stage like fat kids, you can't lick the floor till it's over, know that this odor is potent.
On Ocean's Eleven getting sick from the motion of heads popping up and down, Caught in a breeze to rock to the sound
that's locked from the hottest degrees.

I'm never taking no "no" from no one.
It never sounds as good as "yes" (yes)
Never hold it back, raise the roof,
cos you gotta get it off your che-e-e-e-est.
