

Gravity

Drapht

I heard the apple doesn't fall far from the branch of the tree
Refuse to believe that it even fell at all
When there was no water in the sea
No crystal clear memories as a teen
I seem to wanna suppress them
Was it the drink? The drugs? The resentment? Anger against him?
Bombs threats on the regular, on edge
A hyperactive amygdala stuck on fight like I'm a viking
So how does anyone like me?
Anxiety kicks in, thought it was all behind me
Why me? Mixed in with some wasabi
Hot-headed, a little bit of devil inside me
Sibling rivalry, fightin' my in-
Visible Siamese twin that said "Fuck him
Fuck them", but imagine it's all you
You're here to live, to learn, to give, undo, let's go

If you trip
I'll battle the whip
I'll heckle the laws of
Gravity to stop you from falling
Bite my lip
To alter the script
To soften the calls of my
Desires just to stop you from falling

And they say, "Don't bring your past into the future, Paul"
Houston, we have a problem, who's involved?
Why do we prove who's at fault, though?
When there's only ever one view of the funeral
Am I slightly delusional
If I think I ain't effected? Would I be upset if he passed away?
It ain't about Father's Day
It's a liberation of anger like dengue fever
In my bloodstream, every year I leave, it
Burrows deep by eatin' away my heart
Leads to more mistrust and more disgust, and Loss becomes a staple, love evades you
Mum prays to angels tryin' to save you
And forgiveness ain't a weakness, don't worry
It's 'bout lettin' go of the poison you carry, let go

If you trip
I'll battle the whip
I'll heckle the laws of
Gravity to stop you from falling
Bite my lip
To alter the script
To soften the calls of my
Desires just to stop you from falling

To stop you from falling
Under a corrupt kings values (to stop you from falling)
Findin' greatness in silence (to stop you from falling)
Defy the laws of gravity (to stop you from falling)
They say you can't pick who your family is (to stop you from falling)
You can pick who you fight with, though (to stop you from falling)

And I don't wanna fight no more (to stop you from falling)
Dissolve the anger, let go, go (to stop you from falling)

If you trip
I'll battle the whip (let's go)
I'll heckle the laws of (let go, let's go)
Gravity to stop you from falling
Bite my lip
To alter the script
To soften the calls of my
Desires just to stop you from falling

Gravity to stop you from falling
Desires just to stop you from falling
