

Holy Water

Drapht

Why

Holy Water

Where's the holy, holy, holy water?

Get the holy, holy, holy water

Yo, where's the holy, holy, holy water?

Interviews with my inner views

I'm in a bit of rut, yo whether winning or losing

Self-abuser, you's a loser

Pilot flying over Bermuda, lost in the magic

Man was is it tragic or a gift?

'Cause you wanted it so bad, that even when you went and had it, it wasn't it

The trip, it was sickening

Whole scenes built on manufacturing toys like Disney (hey, Goofy)

Man, life can be a beautiful nightmare

Phones light up, faces brighter than Times Square

Living off the grid guarantee I will die there

The zombie apocalypse is now, it's right here (holy water)

I hear the cries from upstairs in the night

Haunted by anger, feeds all the parts I don't like

What is the answer when fan switch off for the power-board?

But I got a whole lot more stash like Salvador

Your identity was built on how loud the crowd will roar (now what?)

So what are you standing for?

Fish outta water you outta order

You cornered by the devil's horns like a matador

And this is Paramore, Misery Business

Ain't a God, ain't a pedicure, get up from my feet (get up)

And if I had a cure to rid you of sickness

But I smoked cigarettes, yo would you listen to me? (Nah)

'Cause I ain't been sleeping the best, there's a lady in my roof space

Who says you are your own ghost, but all I know

Is I'm needing a rest, I think I need a new place

I think I need a new home

Plates fly like planes, names cried, changes dragged upstairs

Ain't that bad, with some holy water (holy water)

Midnight Whispers, ice-cold shivers

I will not face those fears, nah

Where's the holy water? (Holy)

Yo, where's the holy, holy, holy water? (Holy)

Get the holy, holy, holy water (holy)

Yo, where's the holy, holy, holy water? (Holy)

Water (holy, holy)
