

Confessing

Drax Project

We made a blind beat challenge
10 minutes for each to write our instrumental part
Without hearing the others
All we knew were the key and the tempo

Up all night confessing
Looking for a blessing
Can't seem to learn my lesson and
I might be regressing
'Cause yes it's been a minute and lately I've been stressing and
I know that I should take time to even out my odd mind
Up all night confessing looking for a blessing
Can't seem to learn my lesson

Oh oh oh oh oh oh
Got me confessing
Can't send the message
I'm twisted
Oh oh oh oh oh oh
If you would listen I'd make it right but

I got so stressed out
Can't let nobody in
Say I let you down
Even when I'm trying
The words out of my mouth
Just dig me further in
Have you gone and found
Someone to start again

Up all night confessing
Looking for a blessing
Can't seem to learn my lesson and
I might be regressing
'Cause yes it's been a minute and lately I've been stressing and
I know that I should take time to even out my odd mind
Up all night confessing looking for a blessing
Can't seem to learn my lesson

I got so stressed out
Can't let nobody in
Say I let you down
Even when I'm trying
The words out of my mouth
Just dig me further in
Have you gone and found
Someone to start again

Up all night confessing
Looking for a blessing
Can't seem to learn my lesson and
'Cause yes it's been a minute and lately I've been stressing
