

Sometimes

Dream, Ivory

Do you think of me
On a cold August morning
When the wind blows your way?

I think of you
When the carolers sing
That was our favorite holiday

You appear from time to time
Just a thought that comes to mind
Memories that come into play

Felt the wind in Anaheim
Like a touch you left behind
Sometimes I just want it to stay

You're melting away
You're melting away
You're melting away
Missing you is like snow in California

Do you think of me?
When the sun sets at five
And the warmth has gone away

I think of you
Almost never at all
But sometimes there's just that one day

You appear from time to time
Just a thought that comes to mind
Memories that come into play

Felt the wind in Anaheim
Sometimes I just want it to stay

You're melting away
You're melting away
You're melting away
Missing you is like snow in California

I wrote you a letter
When you were still here
Still in my hand
Wondering where you are now
How you're feeling
It doesn't matter anymore

Time wasn't an issue
When we were together
At times, sometimes, I prayed
For your grand return
A silent standing ovation

Do you think of me?

On a cold August morning
Sometimes
Sometimes
A distant memory
That comes to play
Sometimes
Sometimes
