

Feel so Empty

Dream On, Dreamer

Drink the poison
Light up like gasoline
Fill the cup up
It's time for you to bleed

There's something different now
The taste of ink it won't go down
Sweet destruction has my hand again

Rising up from the inside
Self-destructing again
I'm desperate to myself out but I keep falling in

I never thought that I could feel so empty
Don't even feel like I'm alive
I crash and burn until I see the reaper
Maybe he'll take this weight of mine
One piece at a time

Distant future
It's not a thing for me
Living wasted I don't need to breath

There's something different now
The taste of ink it wont stay down
Sweet destruction has my hand again

Rising up from the inside
Self-destructing again
I'm desperate to myself out but I keep falling in

I try to run but I just sink into the sand
My heart is telling me I want to live again

I never thought that I could feel so empty
Don't even feel like I'm alive
I crash and burn until I see the reaper
Maybe he'll take this weight of mine
One piece at a time

Turn the lights out come on make it darker
We don't need a reason to get higher
Watch me throw it all into the fire
Gonna tell the world that you're a liar

I never thought that I could feel so empty
Don't even feel like I'm alive
I crash and burn until I see the reaper
Maybe he'll take this weight of mine
One piece at a time
