

Spirit Is Moving

Dream On, Dreamer

I'm loved but I'm lonely
I don't want you to know me
Can I be hope for the broken
And still feel like I'm nothing?

So find me here, I'm on my knees
The spirit is moving
It's breaking in and healing things

I'm low but I'm floating
See the chains that I'm holding
Can I be hope for the broken
And still feel like I'm nothing?
My understanding of the way I've been
It's getting broken down, it's shattering
God, has it always been
Has it always been like this?

And there's a weight now
There's a weight now and it's feeling strange
Gotta change now
It's coming in and controlling me

So find me here, I'm on my knees
The spirit is moving
It's breaking in and healing things
The spirit is moving
So find me here, I'm on my knees
The spirit is moving
Into the flames, it takes your pain
The spirit is moving

There is nothing left and nowhere else to go
(There is nothing left and nowhere else to go)
There is no more love and we have broken bones
(There is no more love and we are broken)

I'm sinking now but holding still
As long as we keep on breathing in
I'm finding it hard or I'm finding it strange
That all I believed is wearing thin
Are we just a memory or a bad dream?
You cannot be alone but just dive right in
It's too dark to see the light in my dreams
And now I feel like I'm nothing

So find me here, I'm on my knees
The spirit is moving
It's breaking in and healing things
The spirit is moving
So find me here, I'm on my knees
The spirit is moving
Into the flames, it takes your pain
The spirit is moving

(There is nothing left and nowhere else to go)

There is no more love and we have broken hope
(There is no more love and we are broken)
(There is nothing left and nowhere else to go)
There is no more love and we have broken bones
(There is no more love and we are broken)

So find me here, I'm on my knees
The spirit is moving
It's breaking in and healing things
