

Burden

Dream State

Because I can
I climb the highest mountains in life
I've tread the waters and learnt to fly
I face my demons my kryptonite
I will not let this subside

Cause I'm a sucker for your love
And I'm tryna rise above
I just can't get, enough (I just can't get enough)
Cause I'm a sucker for your lies
You're a burden on my mind
I just can't get inside (I just can't get inside)

Get up, get up
Stand up, stand up
I've worked too hard, to build these walls
Shut up, shut up
Enough's enough
Don't break my heart, I won't lose it all

We saw the limits and took the line
Shifted awareness with endless sight
I've burnt myself and I've opened up wounds
And I gave my all to you

Cause I'm a sucker for your love
I just can't get, enough (I just can't get enough)
Cause I'm a sucker for your lies
You're a burden on my mind
I just can't get inside

Get up, get up
Stand up, stand up (stand up)
I've worked too hard, to build these walls
Shut up, shut up
Enough's enough (enough's enough)
Stop breaking my heart, I won't lose it all

No no no and let it fall
Let me go to lose it all
No no no and let it fall
Let, it, fall
Let, it, fall

Break, this, hold
I can't let, you, go
I sold, my, soul
To, this, floor

(We built, these walls)

So we can rise above
When the ashes fall
We will build our love
We can have it all

Get up, get up
Stand up, stand up (Stand up)
Cause I've worked too hard, to build these walls
Shut up, shut up
Enough's enough (enough's enough)
Stop breaking my heart, I won't lose it all

No no no, and let it fall
Let me go to lose it all
No no no, don't let me fall
Don't let me fall
Don't let, me fall
