

Try Again

Dream State

Cause I'm a renegade
I'm fueled with fire and I'm ready to engage
In the battle of love and hate
I'm ready to release the rage
My promise, my hope, my soul
It's all that I burn
Is there nothing from the start
And you eclipse my sun

Baby you've burnt me out
I'm on the run again
The run again
And I can't turn you down (you down)
I'm on that high again
That high again

Crush, hurt
Manipulated by your words
Conflicted by your kiss
Wounded by the sound of your voice in my head
I should probably leave now
Vacate while I still stand, how
Can I still bear the thought of you
By my side until the very end

'Cause baby you've burnt me out
I'm on the run again (the run again)
The run again
And I can't turn you down
I'm on that high again
That high again
AGAIN!

Cause baby you
Burnt
Cause baby you
Burnt

I've broken my back
You never cared
Your brazen ways
Politician hate
Left him all again
And I'll fight your battle
Stand by your side
[?] out
And we can't hide
I would always fight
Fight

You've burnt me out
I'm on the run again (the run again)
The run again (the run again)
But I can turn you down
I'm on that high again (that high again)
That high again

Baby you broke me out (you broke me out)
And I can't fly again (can't fly again)
Baby you broke me out (you broke me out)
I guess I'll try again (I'll try again)
