

Slip On The Moon

Dreamcar

Didn't you call me?
Well, I am listening
I can't stay here forever
Didn't they warn you?
Well, you weren't listening
I know that you're too clever

(Did you speak?)
Speak my name into thin morning?
(Did you reach?)
Reach into the day's divide
Then walk into that place I hide
(Did you speak?)
Whisper to the wind that takes me
(Did you reach?)
Further than the night's divide
Hoping that you'll fall inside?

Admittedly, sometimes I'm hard to see
Just look for me
I will look for you
Admittedly, I may appear as night
Just wait for me
I will wait for you
Masking as moonlight

Did you look for me?
When you went missing
The world sent wolves to find you
I heard them tell you no one was listening
And when you wept I... was beside you. (Oh)

Speak my name into new evening
(Did you reach?)
Reach into the day's divide?
Then walk into that place I hide?
(Did you speak?)
Stand against the wind that takes me?
(Did you reach?)
Further than the night's divide?
Hoping that you'll fall inside?

Admittedly, sometimes I'm hard to see
Just look for me
I will look for you
Admittedly, I may appear as night
Just wait for me
I will wait for you
Masking as moonlight

I will wait for you
Masking as moonlight

I'm hoping that you'll fall inside
I'm hoping that you'll fall inside
I'm hoping that you'll fall inside

I'm waiting for you!
(Will you wait for me?)

Admittedly, sometimes I'm hard to see
(Will you wait for me?)
Just look for me
I will look for you
(Will you wait for me?)
Admittedly, I may appear as night
Just wait for me
I will wait for you
Masking as moonlight
