I can't be there anymore, sorry

Like a kaleidoscope, change my style

Piercing eyes

Don't disturb

Don't light my fire

I can't save you

Don't light my fire

It's God's judgement

With the mask on

It looks like you're in pain

Stay away, violence now

Existence itself is noise

It's just drying out

Don't light my fire

Tell me what it means to hurt

There is no answer

Can't be forgiven anymore

It's God's judgement

I won't be stained by anyone else's colors

I will decide everything

Don't light my fire

I can't save you (Find out)

Close your eyes (You can't come)

There is no answer

Can't be forgiven anymore

It's God's judgement
