Run to you □□□□□□□□

When the night turns red
I draw you in the sky

The hidden truth
The suffocation that come upon us
I can see it in the haze far away
You're feeling it too

Beyond the crossing blade
Even if I can't reach the sadness
Because I just want to meet you
I'm looking for you now, eclipse

I want to be with you at any time
I pray to the sky, I believe in destiny
When the sun and the moon meet
I run to you with this heart

When the two are separated
My dreams repeat
The more I try to forget
My chest hurts, even now

The words disappear
Every day, every day, every day and night
Our days are dying of blood, nah

Beyond the crossing blade
Even if I can't reach the sadness
Because I just want to meet you
I'm looking for you now, eclipse

I want to be with you at any time
I pray to the sky, I believe in destiny
When the sun and the moon meet
I run to you with this heart

If you draw your eyes
Tears will fall in between
The figure of you and me
In my memory
Everything burn, burn
Burn, burn, burn
Only believe in what's in front of you

I want to be with you at any time
I pray to the sky, I believe in destiny
When the sun and the moon meet
I run to you with this heart
