

We Can't Forget Him

DreamDoll

Dream

Money flowing
But we all still struggling
Day 1's stabbed me in my back
Still recovering
Lies on they lips
Call em out they get to stuttering
Stare in your face
Even swear on they motha dem
Yeah
All that glitters ain't gold
Trust me, it's the same pain
When you crying in the rolls
Don't let things be the thing
That you love
That's flawed
And them people could leave
But we still got God
I'm grateful

Father, I thank You for each day in my life
I realize I don't need anything
I need You by my side
Shine Your light I follow
Oh Lord
I try to pretend
I can do without You
But I be outta my mind
Doing things my way
Losing faith, just living life blind
I don't want this life no more
Oh Lord
Regulate my mind, my heart, and soul

I keep forgetting
I been through this before
I keep forgetting
That this battle is not mine, it's Yours
I keep forgetting
We ain't gotta learn the hard way
I keep forgetting
We can't forget Him

No no no
I ain't do this so-lo-lo
I ain't get here by myself
There's a reason why I glow
There's a reason why these shows
Packed out every row
Why I'm pissing off my foe's
There's a reason why I'm chose
He my number 1, UNO
Greatest you one, you know
Created in his image
Lil flawed but I do know
That I try and only getting better

Come for him it's big Beretta
(Wait, I told y'all he was still working on me)

I keep forgetting
I keep forgetting
That this battle is not mine, it's Yours
I keep forgetting
We ain't gotta learn the hard way
I keep forgetting
We can't forget Him

Thankful you don't do us the same
You love us in spite of our ways
Lift your hands and give him the praise
We can't forgot him
