

Lavender

Dreamer Boy

We've been on and off for years
I think I need a taste
I've been waiting for your man
To hop right out the frame
And my old thing turned into a cold thing
So I froze away, another day
And changed the whole thing
Ooh, baby, you can ask about my pinky ring
I can feel your energy, I can tell you're into me
Hanging off the balcony
Gold lights, gold link
I can see the alchemy
Girl, you look like lavender
It's up to you if we do or die
Feelings always new when it's been a while
But loosen up your spine, let's be fools tonight
And then we hit rewind, it was too divine
I think you need a newer guy, but who am I?
You decide
Let's just keep on doing it, if it feel right, get inside
You could be my queen tonight
Doing anything you like
I think my shot wide open

Ooh, I think I want you again, baby
Ooh, I think I'm caught up again, baby
Ooh, I think I want you again, lately
Ooh, I think I want you again
My lavender baby, yeah

Yeah, we can take it to the bedroom
Way you work it little lady
It be hard to handle, we can light some candles
Clothes dismantled
The way you tease me, baby, make a toddler throw a tantrum
Gotta throw my hands up (I think I)
Surrender my feeling
Keep this pen on this paper
The way you taste make me want me to save it for later
Yeah, we hanging like a beautiful painting
Sound like my favorite playing radio stations
Tell me you done with the faking
Your heart's always aching
But it's nice for the taking
And it could be what we make it
But first, let's get naked
My lavender baby
No, no, no, no-no

My lavender baby
No, no, no, no-no
My lavender baby
I said now, I said, I said now

Ooh, I think I want you again, baby
Ooh, I think I'm caught up again, baby
Ooh, I think I want you again, lady

Ooh, I think I want you again
My lavender baby

Can't help it when it feels this good
When the feelings right, when we have all night (Feels this good, oh)
Can't help it when it feels this good
When the feelings right, when we have all night (So right)
Can't help it when it feels this good
When the feelings right, when we have all night (Feels this good)
Can't help it when it feels this good
When the feelings right, when we have all night
Ooh, I think I want you again, my lavender baby
Ooh, I think I'm caught up again, my lavender baby
Ooh, I think I want you again, my lavender baby
