

Under my skin
A spreading desire, feeding my hunger
Inside of me
The pressure gets higher, fueling a fire

I am a seeker of meanings but I stopped asking my questions to the stars;
I am a rule breaker, I can't look at the world behind these bars
Out of control
It can't be explained nor it should be ignored
Impulse
I feel this way. It's what I have to do
I never know, I never know
If the feeling inside me takes to the right path
You better go or maybe not
I don't wanna be alone if everything ends
Bear with me cause I swear
I don't know what I want
But I can't stay here
I can't stay here

I feel prepared
My uncontrolled actions reflect my devotion
Ready but scared
The engine's in motion: destination unknown

I believe in these feelings and I stopped asking my questions to the stars;
I am a rule breaker, I can't look at the world behind these bars
Out of control
It can't be explained nor it should be ignored
Impulse
I feel this way. It's what I have to do
Nothing more to explore

I never know, I never know
If the feeling inside me takes to the right path
You better go or maybe not
I don't wanna be alone if everything ends
Bear with me cause I swear
I don't know what I want but I can't stay here
I can't stay here

Are we alone in the universe?
The simple thought is beyond our minds
It looks so dark yet so luminous
Like every story it has two sides

Are we alone in the universe?
The simple thought is beyond our minds
It looks so dark yet so luminous
But we keep asking for some more light

Awake me!
I feel so tired I can't sleep anymore
(Take me back to life)
So shake me and set me free
I can't sleep anymore
(Take me back to life)
