

On My Own

Dreamshade

I've seen the worst in people
Ignored their negativity
It' an Empire of dirty Liars
They sing like a choir
Surrounded by the evil fear I've lost my sympathy
So bring it on (now), Bring it on!
I'm done with it.

Right now
There's nothing that scares me
I'm not afraid of you
When something confronts me
I see it through

'Cause I don't care if everything around me falls apart
If all you think about me stays untouched
You should have known it all right from the start
I'm on my own

I tried and tried to please you but what was it for?
Your Judgement doesn't matter and it won't make me feel better
I'm tired of you and it's time to break through this silence because I'm done with it

Don't waste your time 'cause of someone else
Be brave enough to be yourself

'Cause I don't care if everything around me falls apart
If all you think about me stays untouched
You should have known it all right from the start
I'm on my own.
