

Question Everything

Dreamshade

Sometimes you run, sometimes you crawl. I know
Been there, done that. I swear I've seen it all
Sometimes you rise up but then you fall
You can't call yourself a winner until you've reached the bottom

I tried everything to beat this
I'm heading my way with nothing to say
Your promises make me so sick
Paving your way with gold 'cause of my name

Question everything
'Cause I know, 'cause I know
There's something wrong
But everyday
I'm going, I'm going, I'm going on

I perceived the sky so close
Every night I get frightened of how it goes
Money call. You're just a pawn
Make your choice. Take the phone
What are you waiting for?

I tried everything to beat this
I'm heading my way with nothing to say
Your promises make me so sick
Paving your way with gold 'cause of my name

Question everything
'Cause I know, 'cause I know
There's something wrong
But everyday
I'm going, I'm going, I'm going on
So question everything
What I know, what I know
Is that I'm not a part of this
I'm better, I'm better without you

I can't take it anymore
I've been losing my sleep
'Cause I feel like everyone
Is trying to keep something from me

I can't take it anymore
I've been losing my sleep
'Cause I feel like everyone
Is trying to keep something from me

Question everything
'Cause I know, 'cause I know
There's something wrong
But everyday
I'm going, I'm going, I'm going on
So question everything
What I know, what I know
Is that I'm not a part of this
I'm better, I'm better without you
