Rise

Dreamshade

Didn't you hear the siren?
They wanna wake us up
Is everything that we wanted just over now?

Live the illusion
Our fabricated dream
A beautiful prison where we feel free Discard the keys. We're fitting in Oh, will I let them win?

Time to kill the lights
I need a minute of my life to rest my eyes
Tired of all the lies,
I pour the wine
I wanna know if I can find myself tonight

Runnin' away (ah)
You're all the same (yah)
and I can't relate to the Cliché (no)
Oh, before you lock me in
I'm breaking out
Try to make me sink
if you know how
I died a thousand times
but I can't die enough

Rise!

Designed and built
Project denied
Was I a good deal?
Already expired
My life isn't perceived by the crowd
Staying on my way 'cause I won't bow down

Time to kill the lights
I wanna know if I can find myself tonight

Runnin' away (ah)
You're all the same (yah)
and I can't relate to the Cliché (no)
Oh, before you lock me in
I'm breaking out
Try to make me sink
if you know how
I died a thousand times
but I can't die enough

Let me start again
I'll be the King of my own game

"Wear the Crown. Stand your ground"
I finally found the meaning
If all it takes is my mind
then I'm awake
Believe me

When all the monuments fall we rise

Runnin' away (ah)
You're all the same (yah)
and I can't relate to the Cliché (no)
Oh, before you lock me in
I'm breaking out
Try to make me sink
if you know how
I died a thousand times
but I can't die enough

Time to kill the lights
I wanna know if I can find myself tonight
