Sincere

Dreamshade

Why can't I understand you? The path you're on I can't get to Why can't I feel you in my heart? We're drifting so far apart

Don't make it up, please be sincere 'cause I just can't sleep at night, since you're not here

Sometimes I want to fucking scream Scream 'till I have no voice Have someone to hold me Tell me there's another choice

Take my hand I'm here for you Let me in, we'll make it through

Sometimes I want to fucking scream Scream 'till I have no voice Have someone to hold me Tell me there's another choice so...

Take my hand I'm here for you Let me in, we'll make it through

Why can't I understand you? The path you're on I can't get to Why can't I feel you in my heart? We're drifting so far apart

Don't make it up, please be sincere 'cause I just can't sleep at night, since you're not here

Don't make it up, just be sincere I swear I'll do my best to get back on your path
