

Last Goodbyes

Dreamtale

I can not turn
Your hourglass of life
Now I realize how
Precious is time
When we saw
The shooting star
We wished our
Lives will never change
But it was a lie
And now I can't take
Your pain away

How I'm scared to see
The pain and tears
In your eyes
But our flame will burn
And all my fears
They'll fade away
Stay by my side
And cover me
With your lullabies
I know these are
Our last goodbyes

I close my eyes and
I feel you so near
Tears filling my eyes
How I wish you'd be here
Now I see you like a
Ghost in shadows
Everywhere I go
Even though it broke
My heart to lose you
I know I'm not alone

How I'm scared to see
The pain and tears
In your eyes
But our flame will burn
And all my fears
They'll fade away
Stay by my side
And cover me
With your lullabies
I know these are
Our last goodbyes

How I'm scared to see
The pain and tears
In your eyes
But our flame will burn
And all my fears
They'll fade away
Stay by my side
And cover me
With your lullabies
I know these are

Our last goodbyes
