

Pirates' Lullaby

Dreamtale

Night with a howling wind
We shall sail the sea
Stars all over the sky
Ruthless wind will weep
All those stories of monsters in the sea
In darkness like this
It feels like they are real

Oh, do I dare close my eyes
Oh, no one can't hear our cries
I say my prayers to my gods out there
With the wind that blows
And voice of the sea that calls to me
With it's restless swell
Will I rest my night in peace

Strike of lightning is twisting and white
Like lion the thunder roars
The rain falls on me the winds are sweeping
In stormy raging sky
Mighty Goddess of the ocean
Over the perilous waves carry me
Safe is this my last day?
Is this the end of all hope?
Of all hope?

With in his dying fear
These soothing words he'd hear
Sail straight towards the northern star
My light is drawing near
