

Silent Path

Dreamtale

Light's fading, night is calling
Covering the worries of day
Wind whispers leaves, leaves are falling
Slowly light fades, comes the shade

Following the path to a silent vale
Whispers of wind call me to stay

Nightfall is weaving its spell
Darkness hides the land within its shell
Twilight lights my way as I flow
Realm beyond imagination I go

Blinded by time
Of the years that have passed by
Left to astray
My mind's own way

Nightfall is weaving its spell
Darkness hides the land within its shell
Twilight lights my way as I flow
Realm beyond imagination I go
