There's a self-centered place
That spins and spins
Where greed and envy rule
Stubbornness and opinions
Make everyone a fool
Everyone's a fool

It's where attitudes and egos shine
And war is so fine-tuned
It's so fine-tuned
It's so fine-tuned

It's where trust is void and hate's employed
This idea must change soon
It must change soon
It must change soon
