

Lonely

Dreezy

I just want to have somebody that's for me only
It's hard to find the one when all these niggas be on me
I thought that we was meant to be but I want you to show me
Cause let's be honest nobody wants to be lonely
Nobody wants to be, nobody wants to be - be lonely, be lonely
Nobody wants to be, nobody wants to be - be lonely, be lonely

I showed you part of me that nobody's ever seen
You ain't appreciate it
But you sat in front of me and said you was in love with me
And I believed you babe, ay
But I tend to forget that these niggas ain't shit
Kiss you right on your lips then hop in the whip with a dip like you wasn't his bitch
Told you he was in love bitch he read you the script
One hunnit this as real as it gets
You think you the one you just one on the list
So I text all these niggas and give them the time that I offered you
Let them pull up on me, probably roll a stogie just to get my mind off of yo u
Cause I know you out with your back-up
If I catch her she gone need back up
So maybe I should just back up
Pulled my guards down I put them back up

I just want to have somebody that's for me only
It's hard to find the one when all these niggas be on me
I thought that we was meant to be but I want you to show me
Cause let's be honest nobody wants to be lonely
Nobody wants to be, nobody wants to be - be lonely, be lonely
Nobody wants to be, nobody wants to be - be lonely, be lonely

It once was you and me
But you wouldn't let it be
You're so difficult
And really all you need is me
I wish that you could see
You're so difficult, ay
I'm looking for somebody
But not just anybody
Cause if I give you my body
Then I won't give it to anybody
But you tweakin, staying late on the weekends
You lying, you sneaking, she text you I'm peeking
You thought I was sleeping
You with her, you cheating, I'm cheated but creeping
I'm hurting, I'm heated, I'm through
So I called one of my niggas and told him come through Ain't got feelings for him but I told him that he was my boo
Let him lay me down but whole time I was thinking bout you
But what hurts the most is I know you be laying up too

I just want to have somebody that's for me only
It's hard to find the one when all these niggas be on me
I thought that we was meant to be but I want you to show me
Cause let's be honest nobody wants to be lonely
Nobody wants to be, nobody wants to be - be lonely, be lonely

Nobody wants to be, nobody wants to be - be lonely, be lonely

Nobody wants to be, nobody wants to be - be lonely, be lonely

Nobody wants to be, nobody wants to be - be lonely, be lonely
