

After Midnight

Drew Baldridge

Didn't know what we were getting into
Didn't care about a small town curfew
One pebble against your window had you sneaking outside
Pushed my truck outta earshot
You were freaking out, talking about getting caught
So I cranked it up, but kept the lights off
Except the ones in your eyes

You were like, ooh boy
Never felt so alive
And I was all, yeah girl
We got nothing but time
To ride this night together
Ooh, what a ride
Falling like the moon into the sunrise
Yeah, who says nothing good happens after midnight?

I was shaking with the first time jitters
Tryna muster up the guts to kiss ya
Til you leaned close, and whispered, what you're waiting on?
Lips touched and the sparks went flying
Couldn't stop it, there was no use trying.
Praying that that morning horizon would leave us alone

You were like, ooh boy
Never felt so alive
And I was all, yeah girl
We got nothing but time
To ride this night together
Ooh, what a ride
Falling like the moon into the sunrise
Yeah, who says nothing good happens after midnight?

When the world goes quiet
And you put your heart in mine
And I could feel you breathing, after midnight
Every night, girl I wanna hold you like
You're everything I ever needed

You were like, ooh boy
Never felt so alive
And I was all, yeah girl
We got nothing but time
To ride this night together
Ooh, what a ride
Falling like the moon into the sunrise
Yeah, who says nothing good happens
Yeah, they do, they don't know what happens
After midnight
After midnight
