

Little Bit

Drew Baldridge

Come on

Little bit of sun sinking down on an old grain bin
Little bit of sweat on a brow, a whole lotta take it on the chin
A little bit of barbwire, little pallet bonfire
Little corn growin' up in rows
Yeah, pray for what we got, we don't need a lot
'Cause little is all we know

A little bit of out there
Little bit of nowhere
Out where
Little bit goes a long way
A little bit of cold beer
Little bit of John Deere
Slow gear
Hauling up a lot of that homemade hay
"Hey girl, whatchu doin' tonight?"
Turns to "Baby, whatchu doin' for the rest of your life?"
That down-home homegrown life ain't hard to measure
Living small-town little's just a little bit better

Yeah, it is

A little bit of wide open peekin' through a screen door
A little Hank still comin' through the dash
Population reads 584
And every last one would give the shirt of their back for a

A little bit of out there
Little bit of nowhere
Out where
Little bit goes a long way
A little bit of cold beer
Little bit of John Deere
Slow gear
Hauling up a lot of that homemade hay
"Hey girl, whatchu doin' tonight?"
Turns to "Baby, whatchu doin' for the rest of your life?"
That down-home homegrown life ain't hard to measure
Living small-town little's just a little bit better

Hey, whoa

Little piece of land, little peace of mind
Little piece of heaven, little piece of the pie
Little two lane, baby sittin' on my right
As for me and mine damn right, we like

A little bit of out there
Little bit of nowhere
Out where
Little bit goes a long way
A little bit of cold beer
Little bit of John Deere
Slow gear
Hauling up a lot of that homemade hay

"Hey girl, whatchu doin' tonight?"

Turns to "Baby, whatchu doin' for the rest of your life?"

That down-home homegrown life ain't hard to measure

Yeah, just a little bit better, hey
