

Prayer List

Drew Green

Hey mama, don't save me a seat
It's 10:49 and I didn't get much sleep
I know that I should be there 'cause I'm a God fearing man
But I know who might be there so I don't know if I can
I don't know if I can

'Cause ever since the day the good Lord put her in my life
I thanked Him every morning
And I thanked him every night
But ever since the day that He let her say goodbye
I haven't hit my knees
Or bow my head one time
'Cause right now I don't wanna talk to Him
So put me on the prayer list

Hey mama, spot me a twenty and a plate
I sing a little louder when they sing Amazing Grace
And when the preacher asked if anybody out there could use a prayer
Make sure your hand's the first one way up in the air

Ever since the day the good Lord put her in my life
I thanked Him every morning
And I thanked him every night
But ever since the day that He let her say goodbye
I haven't hit my knees
Or bow my head one time
'Cause right now I don't wanna talk to Him
So put me on the prayer list

One day I'll be back on my feet and this heart'll be back from breaki ng
If I'm ever gonna get over her and ever back to praying
It's gonna take the whole congregation

'Cause ever since the day the good Lord put her in my life
I thanked Him every morning
And I thanked him every night
But ever since the day that He let her say goodbye
I haven't hit my knees
Or bow my head one time
'Cause right now I don't wanna talk to Him
So put me on the prayer list
Put me on the prayer list
Oh, put me on the prayer list
Hey mama, mhh
Put me on the prayer list
