Drew Green

Put another L down for the home team
It looks like it's gonna be a long year
I'm up against some pretty damn good memories
It's gonna take every bit of cold beer they got
In this bar, eighty to a hundred
I've been hittin' it hard ever since you left
I ain't seen a W yet, yeah

I throw 'em down, toss 'em back and turn 'em up
Out the bottle, a glass and a can or a cup
Going shot for shot with your goodbye
But it don't matter how hard I try
I can't outdrink the thought of you leaving
Instead of drowning your memory, I'm sinking
Thought it'd be easy, but I'm taking a beatin'
Night after night
Yeah, girl, you're still undefeated
You're still undefeated

I start running through the shit I should've never said
But the liquor don't wash away
Watching you filling up your suitcase on the bed
Straight out the door to the driveway
It's taillights, a dust cloud
Bartender, pour me up another round, yeah

I throw 'em down, toss 'em back and turn 'em up
Out the bottle, a glass and a can or a cup
Going shot for shot with your goodbye
But it don't matter how hard I try
I can't outdrink the thought of you leaving
Instead of drowning your memory, I'm sinking
Thought it'd be easy, but I'm taking a beatin'
Night after night
Yeah, girl, you're still undefeated
Yeah, girl, you're still undefeated
Night after night
Yeah, girl, you're still undefeated

Ooh, you been on a record run
What do I gotta do?
Oh, come on, baby, give me one
I throw 'em down, toss 'em back and turn 'em up
Out the bottle, a glass and a can or a cup
Going shot for shot with your goodbye
But it don't matter how hard I try
I can't outdrink the thought of you leaving
Instead of drowning your memory, I'm sinking
Thought it'd be easy, but I'm taking a beatin'
Night after night
Yeah, girl, you're still undefeated
You're still undefeated
You're still undefeated
Night after night
Yeah, girl, you're still undefeated
