

Love Will Bring You Home

Drew Holcomb & The Neighbors

Some say love is for pleasure
You take what you want
I say love is a healer
Of the broken heart

Some say love is a treasure
Money can buy
I say love is a bloodstain
In the innocent's eye

Love will bring you home
Love will bring you home
In your darkest hour
In your time of need
When you're praying for shelter
When you're begging down on your knees

Some say is a gamble
You win or you lose
Well I say love is the father
Waiting for you

Love will bring you home
Love will bring you home
In your darkest hour
In your time of need
When you're praying for shelter
When you're begging down on your knees

Love will bring you home
Love will bring you home
In your darkest hour
In your time of need
When you're praying for shelter
When you're begging down on your knees
