

Make It Look so Easy

Drew Holcomb & The Neighbors

You were blue, like the August midnight
You were a true story, you've been telling your whole life
I was bankrupt dreamer, busted up carnival ride
You jumped in the passenger seat, and I came alive

You make it look so easy
You make it look so easy

You were nonchalant, a confidant, quick like the strike of match
The tears in your eyes, could win a Pulitzer prize
And my hands down favorite laugh
My comedy is tragedy, sometimes it gets the best of me
You watch my lips and always find the harmony

You make it look so easy
You make it look so easy
I know the road is hard to travel
Loving me is an uphill battle
But you make it look so easy

I knew what I had the very first time you put your hands in mine
I knew it would be impossible for me to ever live without you
I could never live without you

You make it look so easy
You make it look so easy
I know the road is hard to travel
Loving me is an uphill battle
But you make it look so easy
