

Nothing Like a Woman

Drew Holcomb & The Neighbors

Oh, I want all her innocent kisses
Oh, I want all her mysteries
I wanna stand by her in the moonlight
Oh my Lord, she's the woman for me

I wanna drive down Riverside by the Mississippi
Walk hand in hand on Poplar Avenue
There's a heatwave taking over my heartbeat
Oh my Lord, she's the woman for me

Nothing can stop you like a woman
Make a man forget his own name
Nothing like a woman can drive you insane
Oh, there's nothing like a woman

The way she smiles, the way she moves her hips
And the way she looks when she turns her head
Well I feel like I'm losing my mind
Take me home, she's the woman for me

Nothing can stop you like a woman
Make a man forget his own name
Nothing like a woman can drive you insane
Oh, there's nothing like a woman

Nothing can stop you like a woman
Make a man forget his own name
Nothing like a woman can drive you insane
Oh, there's nothing like a woman

Nothing can stop you like a woman
Make a man forget his own name
Nothing like a woman can drive you insane
Oh, there's nothing like a woman
Oh, there's nothing like a woman
Oh, there's nothing like a woman
