

Shine Like Lightning

Drew Holcomb & The Neighbors

Ten years dancing to the music
Eight years dancing with the girl I love
Cynics hearts and critics plunder
Take something beautiful and make it feel small
Even when the rain pours down
Even when the light seems like it's fading
Even when your heart aches, feels like it's gonna break
That's when you sing out loud

Hey Hey
We're gonna shine like lightning
Hey hey
Even if our backs against the wall
Hey hey
We're gonna shine like lightning
Like we've got nowhere to go

I never was much for small talk
Born with a heart felt heavy as stone
But I still love the sound of laughter
It's the sound of hope keeping us alive
Even when the rain pours down
Even when the light seems like it's fading
Even when your heart aches, feels like it's gonna break
That's when you sing out loud

Hey hey
We're gonna shine like lightning
Hey hey
Even if our backs against the wall
Hey hey
We're gonna shine like lightning
Like we got no where to go

Even when the rain pours down
Even when the light seems like it's fading
Even when your heart aches, feels like it's gonna break
That's when you sing out loud

Hey hey
We're gonna shine like lightning
Hey hey
Even if our backs are against the wall
Hey hey
We're gonna shine like lightning
Like we got nowhere to go
Shine like lightning
Shine like lightning
We're gonna shine like lightning
Shine like lightning
