

While You're Gone

Drew Parker

I'm sitting on a tailgate by the lake
Watching the sun go down
And this lucky strike buzz got me betting
You're missing me bad right now
I ain't heard from you now
Or seen you around in two or three weeks
I can't tell if the joke's on you, girl
Or if the joke's on me

Yeah, while you're out there
Looking for some kind of brand new start
I'll just be kicking it with this bp pbr
You're gonna come back with your bags packed
Missing me 'fore too long, yeah
I'll be right here drinking a beer
Baby, while you're gone, ah

I bet them city lights in your eyes look so damn good
Ah, but they don't hit ya
Nah, they don't fit ya like main street would
I wonder if you've seen that green grass
Wherever you've gone
Is it everything you wished for
But still too far from home?

Yeah, while you're out there
Looking for some kind of brand new start
I'll just be kicking it with this bp pbr
You're gonna come back with your bags packed
Missing me 'fore too long, yeah
I'll be right here, drinking a beer
Baby, while you're gone

Yeah, while you're out there
Looking for some kind of brand new start
I'll just be kicking it with this bp pbr
You're gonna come back with your bags packed
Missing me 'fore too long, yeah
I'll be right here, drinking a beer
Baby, while you're gone

While you're out there
Looking for some kind of brand new start
I'll just be kicking it with this bp pbr
You're gonna come back with your bags packed
Missing me 'fore too long, yeah
I'll be right here, drinking a beer
Baby, while you're gone

I'll be right here, drinking all this beer
Baby, while you're gone, ha

Yeah, while you're gone, yeah
