

Behind A Cloud

Drew Seeley

You and me on the port sipping lemonade
Still in love telling girls while our daughter plays
Not worried 'bout whether it's gonna rain
So happy 'cause we know we never did it halfway
Not living in the future or looking back
Just living in this moment to the full extent
Some might say it sounds cliché
I don't care, that's what I want someday

Why can't we take this life of ours?
Spark up a fire, shoot us to the stars
Everybody's got their dreams
Far away as they feel right now
They're so much closer than they seem
So hold on

Change come too slow when you need it now
But the sun ain't gone, it's just behind the clouds
And you know your friends by who stuck around
Oh, the sun ain't gone, it's just behind the clouds

Been tryna break free but I haven't yet
Doing it all on my own, student loan, in debt
First one in my family to finish school
But every step forward's like I take back two
And I'm gonna get my American dream
Forbes, Money, and Entrepreneur magazine
And some might say, good luck, no way
They don't know, that's what I want someday

Why can't we take this life of ours?
Spark up a fire, shoot us to the stars
Everybody's got their dreams (everybody's got their dreams)
Far away as they feel right now
They're so much closer than they seem
So hold on

Change come too slow when you need it now
But the sun ain't gone, it's just behind the clouds
And you know your friends by who stuck around
Oh, the sun ain't gone, it's just behind the clouds

(Just behind the clouds)

Change come too slow when you need it now
But the sun ain't gone, it's just behind the clouds
And you know your friends by who stuck around
Oh, the sun ain't gone, it's just behind the clouds

Oh, here it comes, here it comes out
Here it comes, here it comes out
I can feel it on my skin now
It was just behind the clouds
You got the sun in your heart, just let it out
'Cause you ain't broken, the tale ain't told
And the sun ain't gone
It's just behind the clouds

Change come too slow when you need it now
But the sun ain't gone, it's just behind the clouds
And you know your friends by who stuck around
Oh, the sun ain't gone, it's just behind the clouds
