You've been so reckless with my love
Oh, baby
You've been so reckless with my love
Oh, yeah

I used to think you might be someone
I could call Bae
I used to think we might be something
That last forever
Listen to ya self if you want to be free
With me
Saying all the right things but acting like a stranger
Because if you want to vibe
You know that my love can change ya life
I know that you don't want to say goodbye

I can change ya life ya
I can change ya world
You can call me papi
I'mma call you baby girl
I got everything you want
Give you what you need
Sipping mango margaritas
Feet up on the beach
But you better be careful
What you wishing for
Cuz my love don't come for free
It's hard to open doors
I'mma lover but don't walk on me like I'm the floor
Don't be reckless with that key
My heart will go to war

You've been so reckless with my love
Oh, baby
You've been so reckless with my love
Oh, yeah

You've been so reckless with my love
Oh, baby
You've been so reckless with my love
Oh, yeah

Is it love or lust
Or is it all a bust
I thought we caught a vibe
But I'm not giving up
Our love is on a noose
We can try to shake it loose
Or we can say our bye's
And just throw up the deuce

If you want to vibe
You know that my love can change ya life
I know that you don't want to say goodbye
Goodbye
Bye
Bye

Bye

You've been so reckless with my love
Oh, baby
You've been so reckless with my love
Oh yeah

You've been so reckless with my love
Oh, baby
Oh yeah
